Tavern Leaſe for Sale.

THE subscriber being about to remove to the Indian Queen Tavern, in Baltimore, offers for sale, on advantageous terms, the lease of the House he now occupies, having eight years, from the first of December next, to run; which for convenience, it is believed is excelled by none in the United States and from the proximity to the seat of government, and the direct communication which will be opened between the city and Alexandria by the bridge across the Potomac and the Turnpike Road, bids fair to become one of the best stands for business in the country, as the distance to the Capitol over the bridge will be only about 7 miles. With the Lease will be sold, if wanted, the whole of the FURNITURE, as it now stands, together with a large stock of WINES & LIQUORS, There is a vacant Lot on the corner of Cameron and Pitt-streets, adjoining the stables, attached to the House, (which renders it particularly commodious, as by that means the property fronts on three streets) which will be sold in fee simple, or leased for the remainder of the time.

A handsome LOT of GROUND, in the centre of the square between King and Cameron streets, and fronting on Washington and Columbus streets, 107 feet, with a public alley on one side, and an open space that cannot be built on on the other. For a public situation it is unequalled by any property in Alexandria.

ALSO,

A LOT OF GROUND, at the west end, about half a mile from town and fronting on the Little River Turnpike Road, 85 feet, running back 250 feet, more or less. There are improvements on the property adjoining it, on each side.

A handsome LOT OF GROUND, on the George-Town road, about half a mile from town, in a very beautiful situation, containing two acres.

A handsome SQUARE OF GROUND, on Washington and Columbus streets, within one quarter of a mile of town, well enclosed with a post and rail fence, containing some thing less than two acres.

A half acre LOT on the commons, about the same distance as the last mentioned.

ALSO,

My interest in the lease of a FARM, containing between one and two hundred acres, adjoining the town of Alexandria, in a high state of cultivation, and enclosed with a new post and rail fence, (in one of the enclosures is the Alexandria Jockey Club Race Course) with a large crop of OATS and HAY, which will be sold in the stack or otherwise;—— two waggons, four carts, eight ploughs, two double barrows, a large and elegant roller, all of the best construction, six good farm horses, and every other article that can be wanted for a well managed farm, together with 12 choice milch COWS, a fine buffaloe BULL, forty head of SHEEP, about fifty head of HOGS of the very best breed that could be procured. Also, some very VALUABLE SLAVES, if they should be wanted for the farm.

ALSO,

The two lines of STAGES between George Town and Alexandria, with a light HACK & four HORSES.

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against me are requested to bring them forward for settlement; and all persons indebted are desired to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence can be given, my intended removed rendering it necessary that a full adjustment of all accounts should take place.

The Stages South of Alexandria.

ON the first of October next the Mail Stage will commence running as follows between Alexandria and Petersburg in Virginia:

Will leave Alexandria every day at 6 o'clock in the evening, and arrive at Dumfries by 5 in the morning—Leave Dumfries at 6 and arrive at Fredericksburg by 11 1-2 in the moruing—Leave Fredericksburg at 12 (noon) and arrive at Richmond the next morning by 6—Leave Richmond at 6 1-2 and arrive at Petersburg by 11 1-2 in the morning.

Returning, will leave Petersburg every day at 12 1-2 P. M. and arrive at Alexandria in the same time. This stage will carry no more than 2 passengers on any account whatever, and not more than 14 lb. of baggage can be allowed to each passenger.

An Accommodation Stage between Alexandria and Petersburg will also commence ruOning at the same time, every other day throughout the year, without regard to Sundays, and will travel only in the day time.—On this line it is the intention of the owners to study the wishes and the convenience of passengers. Still, however, regard must be had to time—Going south from Alexandria they will breakfast at Occoquan, dine at Stafford Court-House, and lodge at Fredericksburg—The next day will breakfast at the Bowling Green, dine at the Oaks, and lodge at Richmond. And on the third day will breakfast at the Half-Way house and dine at Petersburg.

Returning, will dine at the Half-Way house and lodge at Richmond. Early in the morning, breakfast at the Oaks, dine at the Bowling Green, and lodge at Fredericksburg. Next morning, will breakfast at Stafford court house, dine at Occoquan, and lodge at Alexandria.

The owners on this line too, have to request that passengers will be as moderate as possible in the quantity of their baggage, as any thing more than a small trunk or parcel which will go within the body of the stage will be an extra charge.

MR. SNOWDEN,

Desirous of informing my fellow-citizens of every circumstance touching the important causes of Agriculture and Domestic Manufactures, which may meet my knowledge, or observation, I hasten to present you with the copy of a letter just received from WILLIAM STRATTON, Esquire, of Northampton county, Eastern Shore of Virginia. This letter being in answer to certain Queries transmitted to him, relative to Smith's Island.

"Northampton County, 8th August.

"DEAR SIR,

"I have endeavored to comply with your request in answering the Queries respecting Smith's Island. The Queries I put to the following gentlemen, viz. Capt. James Floyd, Stewart Saunders, George Powell and William Costin. These four gentlemen I am convinced are best acquainted with the Island. I got them all together, and the following answers they gave to your Queries. To the first Quere, they suppose the Island contains 3000 acres of land in all, and of this 2000 acres, of pasturage, fit for sheep. To the second Query, they say, that the Island will support 1500 sheep in summer. To the third, they say, that the Island will support 1500 sheep in winter, and that it is able to support 1500, winter and summer. In the 4th Quere you desire to know something respecting the undergrowth of plants, and bushes. They say, that the Island contains a very large quantity of plants and bushes that answer to support sheep in winter.

"I have thus, Sir, endeavered to answer your Queries as correctly as possible, and am

"Your obedient servant,
"WILLIAM STRATTON"

By perusing this important document, sir, our fellow-citizens will at once perceive the manufacturing resources which our country possesses in a physical point of view; and upon inspecting the specimen of Smith's-Island wool, in your possession, they will behold the manufacturing riches, which have been provided for our use, by the benevolent hand of nature. The pamphlet which you are now pressing, will further inform the public of my intention of devoting Smith's Island to a great national object, and display the plans arranged for that purpose.

I trust, the energy and patriotism of our fellow-citizens, will not be found wanting in aid of this great undertaking, which creates the warmest solicitude, and will command the best labors of, sir,

Your very obedient servant,
GEORGE W. P. CUSTIS.

Arlington House, 22d August.

From the Baltimore North American.

MR. GRAY, of Salem, perhaps the most extensive merchant in New England, and who generally has afloat, when there is no embargo, property to the amount of half a million, declares, that "his estate has declined more than ten per cent. in value, since the operation of the embargo." Suppose, therefore, as Mr Gray is a remarkably judicious and prudent man, as well as a very wealthy one, his whole property was worth, before the embargo, double of what he usually had at sea, the value of his estate may be computed at a million. Deduct from this only ten per cent, he says its diminution exceeds this proportion, and it will follow, that the operation of the embargo has already cost him $ 100,000.

The letter, in which Mr. Gray makes this declaration, is an answer to some strictures upon his motives for approving the embargo, which accounted for his opinion upon selfish principles.

Every merchant, planter and farmer in the United States, (except a few who have plenty of ready money, unengaged in business) has suffered more or less than the propertion of Mr. Gray, astonishingly high as that is. The farmers and planters, indeed, have found it difficult to get half price for their crops.—— And in the name of all that is true and reasonable, what do their losses and embarrassments accomplish? Nothing but the gratification of the ignoble passions of our present ruiers, and a trial of the moonstruck experiments of a man, who has relinquished his researches into the economy of the republics of spiders, ants and butterflies, in order to practice his tortures upon his fellow beings.

Bonaparte's government does not put its hand more deeply into the purses of its slaves than this policy. If he had already come here, I do not think that he would have obliged so respectable and prudent a man as Mr. Gray, to decimate his property in the first 8 months. If his whiskered Sableurs had demanded one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the first year's quietus, which is at the rate of ten per cent per annum, they would have compounded with a Salem merchant for 50,000, and in consideration of his having voted for the embargo, this would be quite enough. I do not say that they would be finally contented till they got all, or till they had reduced this worthy gentlemen, from the high rank he sustains among the mercantile community, down to that undistinguished walk of life, from which his uncommon industry, combined with the honorable sentiments of his heart, and the accuracy of his plans, have in a long course of years raised him. But the pestilential progress of the embargo, which palsies the hand of industry, and crumbles its productions into dust, would in less than another year, as completely turn our citizens out into hopeless poverty, as the military executions by which Junot, Murat or Bernadotte, squeeze out the substance of both rich and poor.

EDICT.

FERDINAND VII. king of Spain and the Indies, and in his name, the Supreme Board of Government of both empires.

In order to carry the Declaration of War against the emperor Napoleon I. into full effect, orders as follows:

I. Within four days after the publication of this, any Frenchman, or any individual under the protection of the French flag, that may wish to enjoy the privileges of the Spanish Flag, shall personally appear before our Board of Finances in this Capital, and make his intentions known; and, upon his taking the oath of allegiance shall be exempt from all sequestration, and enjoy all the privileges attached to the National Flag. The same shall be done in the other towns and cities, before their Boards, or Town-Councils when there is no Board.

II. Any Frenchman, or any individual under the protection of the French Flag, that shall not present himself within four days, shall continue to be considered as a subject of France; and, without any other formality, all his property, of whatever it may consist, shall be immediately sequestered.

III. All merchants, and every other person, that may, by virtue of any title whatever, have in their power goods, rights, or claims, belonging to Frenchmen or to individuals under the protection of the French Flag, are ordered, under their responsibility, to keep them in their hands, without disposing of the same; and, within four days, they shall be bound to give in a sworn return of the said property to our Board of Finances; any one that transgresses these orders, being proceeded against according to law.

Given in the Royal Palace of the Alcazar at Seville; June 7, 1308. By order of the Supreme Board.

SEVILLE GAZETTE.

Royal Isle of Leon, June 10.

At a quarter past three in the evening of the 9th inst. the batteries on the channel del Troceder opened upon the French squadron, consisting of 3 ships of the line and one frigate. Those of the arsenal of Carraca, of the store houses and the magazine situated at the point of the Centera, followed immediately; and were supported by the flotilla stationed in the said arsenal, and by that on the Cadiz station, which anchored opposite Fort Luis, while the French ships themselves lay in the canal of the Arsenal, in such a position, that they were out of the reach of the cannon of the castles, as well as of our own squadron. The French ship of the line Algesiras, finding herself greatly annoyed by the mortar battery of the Centera, directed the whole of her fire towards it, and suceeeded in dismounting its ordinance, but without killing any of the men. The gun boat, No. 17, commanded by ensign (of frigate) Valdes, and Escalera's Mistico were sunk, but no lives lost, as, during the whole of the engagement, we had but three or four killed and as many wounded. With respect to the enemy we are unacquainted with the extent of their loss. Their ships have suffered in their hulls, but not in their masts, the Algesiras alone having lost her fore top mast, and cross-jack-yard. A few shot from the enemy frigate fell into one arsenal, one of which killed one of the slaves. Three reached the stores, but did no harm; 136 in the magazines which were empty; and others, in various other places. One of the enemy's gun-boats blew up, and three boats were lowered from the stern of one of their line of battle ships, but whether with people in them, is not known. The firing, on both sides, ceased at 8 o'clock; and, during the remainder of the night, our batteries threw a few shells, and the French did the same, so that it did not appear to be an action, but rather minute guns upon the death of a general officer, until 9 this morning, when the engagement was renewed with greater activity on both sides, to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time the Hero, Rosilly's flag ship, hoisted a Spanish flag on the fore. Upon this the Prince, one of our ships of the line, hoisted a flag of truce, fired one gun and sent off her barge. She was an hour and a quarter upon this mission; and on her return to the Prince, she was observed going to Cadiz. Our general was soon afterwards summoned to the city, and is not yet come back (half past 9) so that the result is not known. The firing, of course, had discontinued since said hour of three.

This evening they are erecting a battery of eight 24 pounders, close to the bridge of the new town, which, in case matters should not be adjusted, will be ready to-morrow morning, and from its advantageous situation, may annoy the enemy very much.

The Argonauta (a ship of the line formerly belonging to the French, who exchanged her for one of ours) also went out of the Carracca, this evening, for the purpose of taking up a favorable position to fire upon them, together with a large merchantman, within half a cannon shot. The latter is a little below Puntales, and provided with artillery; and it is said, that there are, in both, furnaces for heating red-hot balls.

LONDON, July 5.

A morning paper states, that Government have received intelligence, by express from Ireland, announcing that the expeditian had sailed from Cork.

Arrived the King George and favourite cutters, from the Channel fleet: the Cheerly brig; and Whiting schr. from a cruize. Also the Tiger, Clark, of and from Philadelphia, for Bordeaux, with 49 Spanish passengers, detained by the Growler.

A letter from Gibraltar, dated the 14th June, says:—"Hostilities have already commenced between the French and Spaniards, and the advanced guard of the French army, 3000 men, have been completely defeated in the passes of the Sierra Morsna, by the armed peasantry and smugglers. Between three and four hundred of the prisoners had arrived at Seville, when the last accounts left that place. A loan for fifty thousand dollars was opened here this morning by the General Castanos, for the payment of the Spanish army, and such is the patriotic spirit of the inhabitants of this place this sum was subscribed and raised in the course of a few hours, the subscribers refusing any interest upon the same, though ten per cent was offered."

BY THIS DAY's MAIL.

Latest from England.

BOSTON, August 19.

Yesterday arrived at this port, the ship Isabella, captain Higgins, belonging to N. York, in 33 days from Liverpool. Our files of London papers, by this arrival, are to July 9, and contain much interesting and important matter. We have made pretty copious extracts this day, and shall continue our selections on Monday. The prominent articles contained in these journals, in letters, and as verbally reported by the passengers, are—That a speedy peace was expected between the Northern powers of Europe, in which England would be included as a friend and ally. That in consequence of this expected event, Russian goods had fallen, more than 20 per cent; and colonial productions risen considerably. That an expedition consisting of 180 transports, with 20,000 men, under the command of sir Arthur Wellesly, had sailed for Spain—That besides the assistance furnished by government, a general subscription of money was raising throughout the united kingdoms to aid the patriots of Spain in their struggle for liberty; in one of the interior towns it is said £50,000 was subscribed—That his Britannic majesty, in addressing his Parliament on their prorogation, had promised his utmost assistance to Spain; and as an unequivocal proof of his zeal and attachment to the glorious cause in which the patriots of that country were now engaged, had rescinded all the orders in council, relating to the blockade of Spanish and Portuguese ports—That Lisbon was again in the hands of the Portuguese—and the Russian fleet surrendered to the English—That Joseph Napoleon Bonaparte had arrived at Bayonne, from Naples, and been proclaimed king of Spain and the Indies, by a council, composed of deputies created thro' the influence and perfidy of the French emperor—That gen. Murat, who had commanded the French troops at Madrid, and been proclaimed lieutenant general of the kingdom of Spain, had been compelled to fly from the capital, and seek his safety at Bayonne, where he remained at our last dates—That Mr. Canning, on the 23d June in reply to some observations from members of Parliament, declared, that ministers had not received any recent communications from America; that he understood the American cabinet were negociating on some important matters with France; that while waiting the result of these negociations, he could only say, it was the wish of his majesty to be on friendly terms with the U. States; and that every thing would be sacrificed to that consideration, but the honor of the country—That American and British vessels were in great demand throughout England—That insurance to the W. I. had fallsn to 3 guineas—freights to America £4 10*s.* a £5 per ton—That many vessels were up and a number had sailed for Spain and its colonies, with goods, provisions, &c.—and generally, that the present administration of England never stood higher in the estimation of the people, than at this moment.

IMPORTANT LETTERS,

"From Liverpool, July 13.

"The events which are now taking place in Spain have revived our hopes, and, we trust, hold out a rational prospect of an effectual stop being put to the progress the French were making towards the subjugation of Europe; we have also well grounded expectations, that Russia will soon be ranked amongst the number of our friends.

"This unexpected, and we may almost say, miraculous change in the politics of Europe has had a very material effect on our market: Russian, Baltic, and Mediterranean produce of all desciptions is rapidly declining, whilst our Colonial produce is as rapidly advancing; ten to fifteen per cent advance has been given on Coffee, from the supposition that the North of Europe would be immediately opened to us, and Hemp is depressed full fifteen pounds per ton.

"Rice is in brisk demand, as it is generally understood that Spain will be in great want of provisions, and a considerable advance has taken place. Timber, Staves, Ashes, and Naval stores of all kinds, will, of course, feel an immediate effect. Tar has dropped in London full 4*s* per barrel; on the 2d inst. a sale of a quantity, per the American Eagle, was effected here at 44*s*; at that time the news from Spain, and of the peaceable inclination of Russia, was not known. At the present moment we do not suppose sales of Naval Stores could be effected at all.

"The very abundant crop we may expect and the fineness of the weather, will tend to keep the prices of corn and wheat down, unless large quantities should be exported to Spain and Portugal; and from what lord Hawkesbury said in answer to lord Holland the other night in the house of lords, we suppose that it is intended to rescind the orders in council, as far as respects those two countries, and indeed we hope the power of France will be so curtailed as to induce the ministry to repeal them altogether; and we think it likely.

"A very great demand has existed for some time for Tobacco, and prices are got up exceedingly high."

"From London July 9.

"Cotton Goods have risen from 10 to 20 per cent; and all kinds in great demand. Ashes and Cotton, have fallen; Flaxseed no sale. The people of England in high spirits—and looking forward to events of glorious import."

[So we go on DISTRESSING England by our Emburgo; while we are FLOURISHING ourselves.]

Another letter from Liverpool, of the same date, says, "The prospect of Peace with the Northern Powers is so great, that Wheat and Russian Goods have fallen 10 per cent within ten days; and colonial productions considerably advanced, in the expectation of a market being opened with Spain and the continent."

[Thus the English are to have the monopoly of all the markets in Europe; while our wise and philosophic President is trying the experiment of the Embargo.]

NEW-YORK, August 20.

Arrived, ship Ocean, Dodge, 42 days from Gibralter. Left brig Tyger, Fancy, of Boston, from St. Michaels, discharging corn; ship Charlotte, Myryck, of N. The ship Alkmonac, Halsted, for London, sailed 23d of June. Spoke June 23d, at Falmouth, ship Glory, of Philadelphia, bound to Palermo; brig Ann, of Newburyport, for Portugal; brig Eliza, of Sandwich for Teneriffe; schooner Britania, Coffin, of Nantucket, for Teneriffe. August 19th, lat. 40 22 long. 63 30, spoke brig Sally, 3 days from Boston, for Demerara.—Two weeks since, in lat. 40 25, long. 65 80, spoke a British brig 66 days from Liverpool for New York.

Alexandria Daily Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24.

The American ship Tiger, brought into Plymouth by the Growler gun brig, has on board the Marquis D'Yrujo, late minister from Spain to the U. States, and his family.

The Tyger was allowed by the American government to take his excellency to Bordeaux. The commander of the Growler informed the Marquis of the late occurrence in Spain and solicited him to proceed thither at once; but the surprise of the Marquis was such as to induce him to doubt some of the facts stated, and to prefer a visit to England before he proceeded to Spain. A passport was last night forwarded from the secretary of state's office, and we understand his excellency intends to pass a few weeks at Bath. The Tiger has a considerable number of passengers on board, also bound to Spain.

Appointment by the President of the U. S.

General JOHN STEEL, of Lancaster, collector of the customs, for the port of Philadelphia, vice General Shee, deceased.

Capt. Higgins spoke a vessel from Malta, from which he was informed, that several French ships of war had been seized at Malaga, and other Spanish ports in the Mediterranean.

IMPORTANT DISPATCHES.

We understand Dispatches to our government, of great importance, were received by the Isabella. They were immediately forwarded to the Secretary of State.

Extract of a letter from Keene, (N. H.) to a gentleman in New York, dated August 8, 1808.

"The electioneering campaign in this state has already commenced with great spirit. Such has been the effect of the embargo upon the people here, that it is generally believed the FEDERAL TICKET will be carried at the next election for representatives to congress——Should this be the case there cannot be a doubt federal electors will also be chosen. In the caucus at Concord the counties of Grafton and Coos were allowed no representatives from among themselves. This circumstance has soured the minds of the demos in that quarter, and will probably occasion their co-operation with the federalists."

Peace with Spain.

LONDON, July 6.

The Gazette of last night contains the following important proclamation:

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th of July, 1808.

Present, the King's most excellent Majesty in Council.

His majesty having taken into consideration the glorious exertions of the Spanish nation for the deliverance of their country from the tyranny and usurpation of France, and the assurances which his majesty has received from several of the provinces of Spain, of their friendly disposition towards this kingdom; his majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered:

First—That all hostilities against Spain on the part of his majesty, shall immediately cease.

Secondly—That the blockade of all the ports of Spain, except such as may be still in the possession or under the control of France, shall be forthwith raised.

Thirdly—That all ships and vessels belonging to Spain shall have free admission into the ports of his majesty's dominions as before the present hostilities.

Fourthly—That all ships and vessels belonging to Spain which shall be met at sea by his majesty's ships and cruizers, shall be treated in the same manner as the ships of other states in amity with his majesty, and shall be suffered to carry on any trade now considered by his majesty to be lawfully carried on by neutral ships.

Fifthly—That all vessels and goods belonging to persons residing in the Spanish colonies, which shall be detained by any of his majesty's cruizers, after the date hereof, shall be brought into port, and shall be carefully preserved in safe custody, to wait his majesty's further pleasure, until it shall be known whether the said colonies or any of them, in which the owners of such ships and goods reside, shall have made common cause with Spain against the power of France.

And the right honorable the lords commissioners of his majesty's treasury, his majesty's principal secretaries of state, the lords commissioners of the admiralty, the judges of the courts of vice admiralty, are to take such measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

STEPHEN COTTRELL.

The Hindostan store ship is arrived at Plymouth from off Lisbon, but she brings no news. The following are the only articles of intelligence which we have seen on the subject of Spain, in addition to those already before the public.

Extract of a letter from an officer on board his majesty's ship Phoenix t

"Finisterre Bay, June 21.

"I take the liberty of acquainting you where we are: the ship is quite healthy; plenty of fresh meat, and fruit in abundance, supplied by the Spaniards about this place—We were at anchor a few days ago at Muros Roads: I went on shore with the Captain and his Interpreter; the people were overjoyed to see us; men, women and children, up to their knees in water, crying out "Long live the English and Ferdinand VII." They have all red cockades in their hats, with this motto—"Conquer or die for Ferdinand VII"—They offered to supply the ship with whatever was wanted. After the return of the messenger, who was sent away with the captain's letter, offering any assistance within the power of the two frigates off Cape Finisterre; they yesterday sent out a Gazette, offering us any thing we wanted. Of course all our thoughts of war are laid aside. The coasters pass and repass without molestation."

PROPOSALS,
For publishing by subscription, in the town of Alexandria,
A NEWSPAPER,
Three times a week,
ENTITLED
The RECORDER,
AND COLUMBIAN ADVERTISER.

NOTWITHSTANDING the increased number of newspapers in the United States, the subscriber is induced to believe, from the population and commercial importance of Alexandria, that another print will meet with the approbation and support of its citizens. Situated as the town is—on a fine navigable river, with a rich interior to support it, and only six miles from the Capitol of the Union; it must, at no distant period, according to the natural course of events, become a city of wealth and magnitude.

Although our trade is at present cut off from the world by a suspension of intercourse with foreign nations, it is anxiously hoped that the two great contending powers of Europe, who, from an infringement on our rights have occasioned this severe, but necessary measure, will feel the full force of its operation, and be compelled to respect the just claims of the American flag. If however, by their continued aggressions, our government is under the necessity of opposing force by force, we have not a single doubt but the patriotism and valor of the American people will meet the event with fortitude, and sacrifice every private enjoyment to preserve our national independence.

As it is usual, and necessary for an Editor to express his political sentiments, he considers it sufficient to declare—that he is warmly attached to the government of the United States, and a supporter of the present administration.

In undertaking the management of a paper, he is fully convinced of the difficulty of the charge; and would shrink from the task, but for the hope of indulgence from a liberal public.

The Editor will, however, endeavor to give his readers a summary, and occasionally a detail of foreign and domestic news. Political subjects will be attended to; and also, all other matter that may tend to benefit society. Attention shall be paid to the local interests of the town and district; and pains taken to give an early and satisfactory account of the proceedings of Congress.

With this outline of his intentions, he submits these propositions to the citizens of Alexandria for their countenance and support:—assuring them, that although the RECORDER is intended to be a firm defender of American rights and principles, its columns shall never with his consent, and while under his control, be made the medium of slander or misrepresentation.—and that no exertions shall be spared to make it as useful a vehicle of information as his abilities will admit of.

John Westcott, jun.

CONDITIONS.

The RECORDER will be published on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, on a good white medium paper, and handsome type, at Four Dollars per annum.

Subscribers in town must pay one half on the delivery of the first paper, and the remainder at the expiration of six months.—Those in the country must pay the whole in advance.

The Paper will be delivered at the houses of the subscribers in town immediately after publication, and forwarded in the country by the first conveyance.

If 500 subscribers are obtained, it shall be commenced as soon afterwards as arrangements can be made.

To the Curious.

A LIVE CASSOWARY, to be seen at HODGKIN'S tavern, sign of the Indian Queen.

THIS animal is a native of the island Borneo; and was brought to the United States in the ship America, Capt. Lelar, from Batavia. It is young and in full plumage, very docile, and worth the attention of every person. The following extract from Dobson's Encyclopedia, shows the estimation in which it is held by the lovers of nature, being conformably to the description given.—(See volume 18, page 40.)

"The Cassowary is nearly equal in size to the Ostrich, but its legs are much thicker and stronger in propertion. It is 5 feet and an half long, from the bill to the end of the claws: the legs are 2 feet and an half high from the belly. The head and neck together are a foot and a half; and the largest toe is 5 inches long. The wing is so small, that it does not appear, being hid under the feathers of the back. The part which most distinguishes this animal is the head, which tho' small, inspires some degree of terror. It is bare of feathers, and armed with an helmet of horney substance, black before, and yellow behind.—The neck is of a violet color, and red in several places. The Cassowary has the head of a warrior, the eye of a lyon, the defence of a porcupine, and the swiftness of a courser.

It can devour glass, without the least injury, &c.

To be seen at the same place,

Several other living Curiosities, &c.

ALSO—A PIECE OF MECHANISM. Such as was never seen before in this country. AN ORGAN of an entirely new construction—The Organ play several favorite tunes—a number of figures, as natural as life, dance to the music, while several artillerist discharge their pieces, &c. a representation which has ever been highly gratifying to spectators.
